

Submit an Internship Application

The PON 4000: NYSERDA Clean Energy Internship Program is designed to provide funding support for new intern hires to introduce eligible individuals to jobs in clean energy careers.

Participating businesses must submit an Internship Application for each individual they hire as an intern through the program. Funding will only be awarded for internships approved by NYSERDA.

Pre-requisites: Before proceeding with the below steps to submit an Internship Application, a business must first have their Business Application to participate in the Clean Energy Internship Program approved and must have received a Salesforce Portal login. Approval to be a participating business is not approval for funding for individual internships.

Note: Internship applications must be submitted via the NYSERDA Portal no later than 30 days after the intern's start date to be eligible for funding.

Introduction

Introduction

The content below provides guidance when beginning, and navigating through, the online application. Please review the following and then continue with the Application Instruction tabs to the left.

Choosing Interns

Within the NYSERDA Portal, businesses can access a list of eligible intern candidate who have applied for, and been approved to participate in, the Clean Energy Internship Program but have not yet been submitted to NYSERDA for an internship role by another business. The instructions below review how to access the eligible Intern Candidate list.

1

Log into your NYSERDA Portal account.

2

From the NYSERDA Portal home screen, click View Eligible Interns. You will be directed to the Clean Energy Internship Program - Intern Candidate Directory.

Business must contact intern candidates directly to confirm their interest and availability for an internship.

5

If you expect to see an intern candidate on the list but cannot find them, it is an indication that the individual has not yet been approved to participate in the program. If this is the case, please confirm that the individual has submitted their intern application.

NYSERDA's review of intern applications may take 2-3 business days. If the review period for their internships application has passed and the intern candidate is still not on the approved intern list, contact cleanenergyinternship@nyserda.ny.gov for more information on their application status.

Accessing the Application

1

Log into your NYSERDA Portal account.

If an individual at your organization, other than the Primary Contact listed on your Business Application, would like an account, please email CleanEnergyInternship@nyserda.ny.gov with the details of your request.

2

Once in your NYSERDA Portal account, access the Submit a New Application tab. Select the Workforce Development and Training (PON4000) option.

Businesses will only see multiple program application options if they have been approved to participate in both the On-the-Job Training and Internship programs.

Checking Your Application Progress

The application has six pages, or steps. Your progress throughout the application can be viewed in the upper right-hand corner where progress is denoted with a black circle. Additionally, these circles can be used to navigate to completed pages by clicking the circle representing the required page.

Workforce Development and Training

Select Intern (Step 1 of 6) - New York State Clean Energy Internship Program

Navigating the Application

Every page contains both a Previous and Continue button. Some pages also contain a Save button allowing applicants to save their progress.

- The Previous button enables to applicant to return to previous pages should it be necessary to update information on pages that have already been completed.
- The Continue button allows applicants to navigate to next page, or step, of the application. Applicants cannot advance to the next page if any required fields on the page have not been completed.
- The Save button allows applicants to save the application progress, returning to it later if it cannot be completed in one sitting.

- Business who close the application from page 1 to 3 will not have their progress saved and cannot return to complete the application at a later date or time.
- Businesses must reach page four of the application before progress can be saved.
- Be sure to Save your progress when you reach a Save point, so you can return to your application and submit when complete.

Application Page 1: Select Intern

The first page of the application requires you to select the Intern you expect to hire.

1

Enter the last name of the Intern you expect to hire using the available field. Once you begin entering in the Intern's last name, a drop-down will appear listing Interns with the same last name. Select the correct option from the drop-down list. Review the email address as well as the name to ensure you select the correct individual.

2

If the Intern's name does not appear after entering in their last name, review the note at the bottom of the page for more information. You cannot proceed at this time with the application until the Intern has been approved to participate in the NYSERDA Clean Energy Internship Program.

3

If you are able to locate and select the Intern from the list, click Continue to advance to the next page of the application. Access the Application: Page 2 tab for related instructions.

Next Steps

Next Steps

Now that you have submitted your application:

- You will receive a confirmation email indicating that NYSEDA has received your application and that it is under review.
- You can expect to receive an email within 10 days after application submission regarding the outcome of the application review and, if applicable, and next steps.
- You may view the status of your application at any time by logging into the NYSEDA Portal and selecting the Project tab.

The submission of an Internship Application does not commit NYSEDA to award funding or make payments related to the application.

Upload Revised Docs

Submitting a Revised Document for your Internship Application

- i NYSERDA may reject individual items from your application and ask you to resubmit a document with items corrected or clarified. If a document is rejected, you will receive notification via email indicating which document has been rejected and what is required for resubmission if you'd like to proceed with your application.

We have prepared a short video walking you through the below steps should you prefer which you can access and view below.

Your browser does not support the HTML5 video element

1

To upload a revised document, log into your NYSERDA Portal account

2
